SUICIDE NEAR PLUMVILLE.

Mr. James Sartain Ends His Life Saturday Morning.

Mr. James Sartain, who lived at the home of Mr. San Rogers, his son-in-law, about a mile from Plumville, committed suicide Saturday morning about 10 o'clock by shooting himself through the heart, using an old double-barrel shotgun.

Mr. Sartain had been depressed for some time, and on Saturday, while the elder members of the family were absent from the house, he ended his life. Coroner Wood held an inquest and returned a verdict of suicide.

Deceased was about 56 years of age, and is survived by several children.

The funeral occurred today at Plumville.

Strikes and Spares

"Tigers" Will Meet the "Cyclones" on Wednesday Evening.

Owing to the absence from the city of two members of the Club, the Fourth Ward Tigers cannot accept the challenge of the Second Ward Cyclones for this evening; but will gladly play them at the Mayville Alleys at 7:30 next Wednesday night.

Manager Harry Day is the right man in the right place, clever and courteous to all.

The printer got tired Saturday night waiting for the Grocer and went into the lumber-busting business on his own hook.

In a choose-up game Saturday night Mr. Charles Young made the phenomenal score of 138 in the last five frames. He stood 48 in the fifth and wound up with 16.

The Londoner man acknowledges his gratitude to Captain J. Harbour Russell's Fourth Ward Tigers for a prize-winning ball—the kind that knocks the "apex" when all others fail. May the "Tigers" win always—except when they tackle the "Kubies."

The Best Promoter—A carefully prepared and well displayed advertisement is the most successful "promoter." It "sells" more people in one day than the average man promoter can interview in the whole of his professional career. It appeals to the reader directly and convincingly, and catches trade that could not be influenced by the most eloquent talker. The active business man employs the most potent agent to strengthen and increase his business.

The Rev. J. B. Holley of Mayfield preached yesterday at the Baptist Church in Dryden.

Dr. Robert H. Tarleton, a native of Mason county, died the 18th inst. at his home at Martinsville, Ind. He was 70 years of age and is survived by his wife and eight children. Deceased was a brother of Mr. John M. Tarleton of Murphysville and an uncle of Mrs. John M. Rains of this city.

WHERE'S THE "MANSION?"

How Old Mayville Comes in For a Theatrical Advertisement.

Florence La Bode recently became belle of a performance left her by her grandmother, Mrs. Eliza Lee of Baltimore, of $200 cash, ninety-three shares of mining stock and insurance, and the old family mansion at Mayville, Ky.; also valuable property in Baltimore and elsewhere. She has taken the "company" for the rest of the season, and will next season star in her own company, accompanied by her little daughter, Jessie Mae Kellam.—New York Clipper.

This is but another way that the theatrical "grafter" has of "working" the newspapers for a lot of free advertising.

The $20,000 in cash and the mining stock may or may not be all right; but that "old family mansion in Mayville" couldn't be found with a microscope.

D. Hechinger & Co.

We were correct when we said a while since that we did not intend having dull January and February business. To be sure there is no profit, in fact in many instances there are losses on our sales; but we have always had a great weakness to close out one season's stock before the next season comes in, hence our stock is always fresh and new.

There still must be a good many people who have not availed themselves of securing "our kind" of clothing!

At the Cut Prices we are now selling at.

Why not come in and buy an Ulster or Overcoat at a price that will save you at least one-third of the money you will have to pay for it next winter? What an excellent opportunity now to buy a Stein Bloch or Adler Suit, medium weight, one that you can wear nine months out of the twelve, and buy it for less money than you buy ordinary goods for.

We will be benefited in turning these goods into money, but you will be vastly more benefited in buying them. Were we addicted to fake advertising that so many clothing men resort to, viz. the fellows who advertise $10 suits for $3.98, we would embellish more. The truth needs no embellishment. You know we only advertise and sell "straight goods."
